COMPUTER BASED TRAINING— HERE IS OUR CONCEPT, TELL US YOUR NEEDS

TENTH DOD/INDUSTRY SHELF-LIFE SYMPOSIUM, 22-23 OCTOBER 2003

NAVICP-M077

CBT—YOUR ANSWER TO YOUR TRAINING NEEDS

- For End Users in Field Unable to Attend Class
- Geared Toward Basics
- Will Not Take Place of Classroom Instruction
- Will be Used as a Guide to Show Where Answers Are Found
- Can be Used After Module Completion as Refresher

POTENTIAL STUDENTS

- Sailors, Soldiers, Airmen, Marines
- Maintenance Shop Personnel
- At Last Minute, Student is Removed From Schedule Due to Overriding Circumstances
- Need to Include SOS Inventory Managers

GEARED TOWARD BASICS

- May Touch Upon Unique Policies, But Will Deal With the Who, What, Where, When, & Why of the Program
  - Who—O'Ring
  - What—Lack of Container Markings
  - Where—Unit Container Per MIL-STD-129
  - When—Upon Initial Receipt
  - Why—Adequate Tracking of the Material Will Not Occur Without It

NOT IN LIEU OF CLASSROOM

- May be Used by Potential Students to Evaluate Effectiveness for Their Job

- Question for Audience—With Some Activities Removing or Reducing Internet Access, Will Receiving a CD in the Mail be Enticement Enough to Have Students Desire to Complete the Class? Or, Are Efforts to Have the CBT Reside on the Internet as a Stand Alone System And Retaining Graded Efforts too Much to Ask?

CLASSROOM REFRESHER

- Separate Module Will Allow Access to Anyone as a Means of Interrogating the System on Their Own When Problems Arise

- Students Need to Maintain Contact With the Phone Numbers That Make Life Easy

CBT PROVIDES GUIDELINES

- Modules Will Consist of In-The-Clear Additional Directions for Shelf-Life Basics, Specific Commodity Explanations, FAQ, and "Where's Waldo?"

- Exercise Module to Find Answers Will Show the Student the Magnitude of the Program, and the Training Program
